

Welcome to Lostwithiel Transition November 2009

e-newsletter

TransitionLostwithiel

Newsandprojects

Events for the Winter Season

❖ Tool Repair & Garden Clear Out

Saturday November 14th, 10am-2pm, Scout Hut, Cattle Market Car Park, Lostwithiel

- Swap any unwanted garden equipment from tools to lawnmowers...
- Pick up plant pots for next year
- Bring any unwanted seeds to swap or donate
- Pick up end of season plants for a donation

- Got any blunt tools ,knives, scissors?- get them sharpened for a small fee – professional mobile sharpener will be outside the Scout Hut, so give your tools a new lease of life – RE-USE
- A collection of renovated garden tools will also be on sale - RE- USE instead of RE-Tail

❖ Lost Threads

Royal Talbot, 10am - midday, Monday 16th November

A new stitching and craft group is being formed. First meet up for this new group.

- want to know more about stitching, weaving, knitting, crochet, macramé, dressmaking, textiles? Got an unfinished project?
- come along and discuss Lost Threads and see where it takes you - learn new skills or pass on skills you have

Thought of the Month

If you are interested in creating a Community Garden-

Cornwall Community Foundation gives grants to local good causes that make a real difference to people's quality of life in Cornwall and the Isles of Scilly.

Your community, making your giving count

The Cornwall Community Foundation is Cornwall's Umbrella charity :-

- dedicated to strengthening our community
- acting as the vital link between donors and local needs
- making a genuine difference to the lives of local people
- managing funds donated by individuals and organisations
- providing expert advice and local knowledge
- connecting people with causes that matter to them
- enabling people to achieve far more with their giving
- ensuring your giving makes a lasting impact in the areas you care about
- there's no more simple and effective way

<http://www.cornwallfoundation.com/>